

FACILITATOR PROFILE – JENNY BROCKIE

"Curiosity and deep questioning can reveal one's empathy."

Jenny Brockie is one of Australia's most gifted and sought after forum facilitators and interviewers, best known for hosting SBS TV's Insight where she facilitates a lively and thought provoking discussion on a wide range of topics each week. Jenny's experience on Insight and as a journalist, documentary film maker and interviewer, give her a unique set of skills which she uses to elicit information in an informative and entertaining way.

Jenny is in strong demand as a facilitator in both the public and private sectors having worked with clients including the Victorian Health Dept, Lend Lease, Volunteering Australia, Financial Review Group, St Vincent de Paul, Australian Business Congress, Sydney Swans and Macquarie University. Jenny Brockie's career spans television, online, radio and print. She has hosted her own radio show on 702 ABC Sydney, presented two interview series on ABC TV and won numerous awards for her television documentaries. She has also reported for Four Corners.

Why 2020 Exchange

As one of Australia's most respected media interviewers, Jenny is renowned for her skill and fairness. She brings warmth, humour and a forensic attention to detail to her work. Jenny tackles the most difficult subjects with ease, drawing out people's ideas and encouraging them to engage with one another in a productive way. The result is often a compelling and revealing conversation.

It is these exceptional skills that brings Jenny Brockie to 2020 Exchange.

Awards

2013 Walkley Award (all media) for Interviewing

2006, 2008, 2012, 2013 United Nations Association of Australia Media Peace Awards for her work on SBS TV's Insight

Coveted Gold Walkley Award in 1992 for her ground breaking documentary "Cop It Sweet" which also won a Human Rights Award, a Logie, an AFI Award and a NSW Law Society Award